John,
I'm always at a loss for things to say in yearbooks but I guess
the best thing to say is that I'm proud to have been a friend of yours.
Have a nice future career and stay out of trouble. Well, for lack of anything important to say I'll sign off. Best wishes -

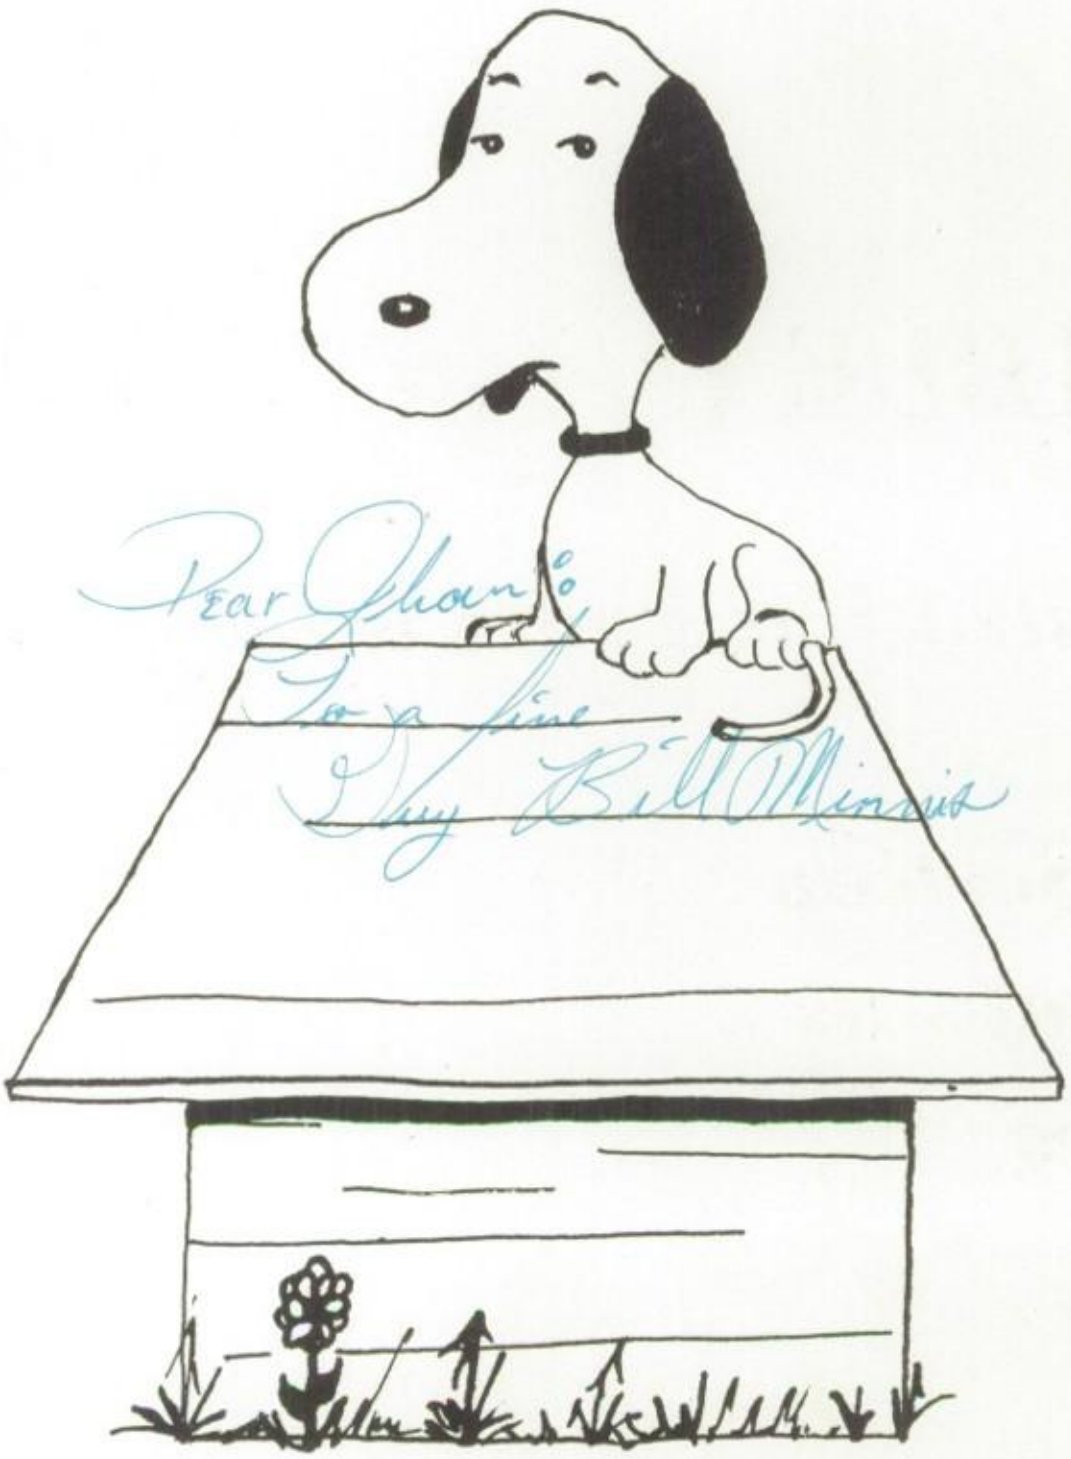
RETROSPECT 1970

SULLIVAN HIGH SCHOOL VOL. 57

"PEANUTS characters by Bill Minnis with apologies to Charles M. Schulz–(C) 1957 United Feature Syndicate."

Foreword



Happiness was the years of hard work and fun we had at Sullivan High School. Throughout this decade and the many others to come, this yearbook will bring back many pleasant memories of the past experiences that we had during our four year stay at S. H. S. As you turn these pages, try to remember the good times that you had during these four years. Think of Sullivan High School as one of the major stepping stones to your future. This education will be the key to your success.

DEDICATED

. . . Not Only a Teacher but a Friend

We, the Senior members of the 1970 Retrospect Staff, have a yearbook. A part of this yearbook is its dedication. We have chosen that one person to whom this dedication is now made. We realize the honor isn't of the most noble caliber. We also realize that it is not in our power at the moment to give her the honor which is her due. But in our fashion, we wish to show her a glimpse of our appreciation. We want her to know that we thank her for being such a truly wondrous rarity: a fine teacher. Therefore, we dedicate this yearbook to Miss Marie Harris.

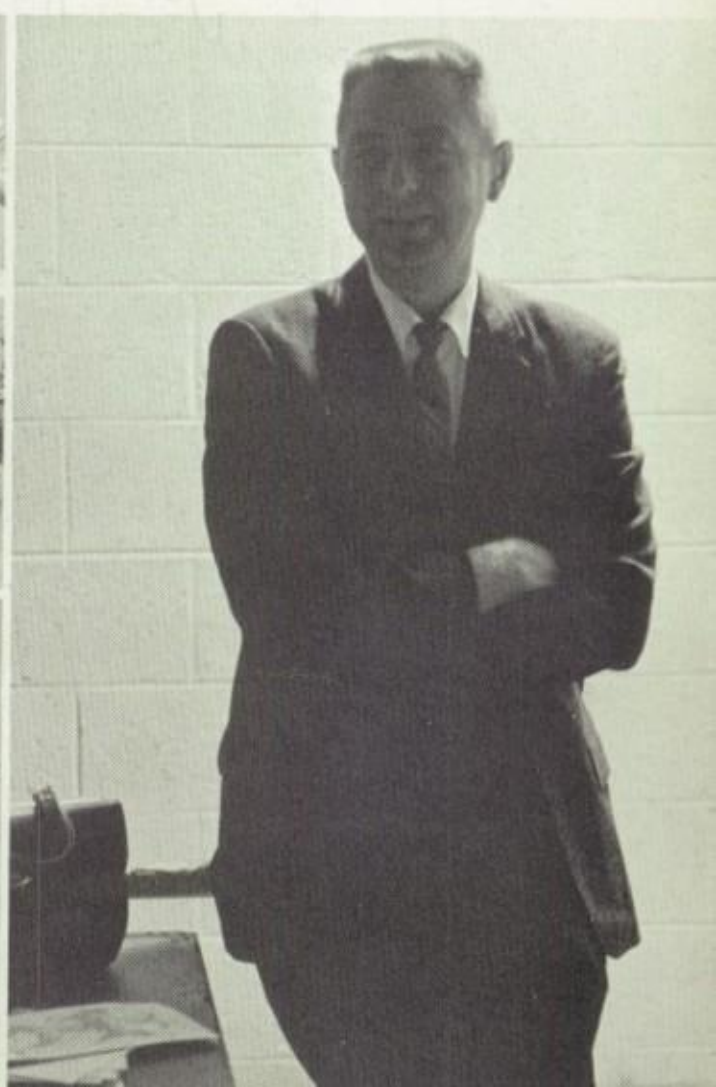
THE MAD HATTERS



Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of 1970, of Sullivan High School, being of doubtful sanity, do make, publish, and declare this our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: We direct that all our just obligations as well as our unjust ones be laughed off or forgotten as soon as possible after our graduation.

We big-heartedly grant to our successors, the juniors, our dignity, and our lofty position as Senior, together with all the swell-headedness pertaining thereto.

To the sophomores, we bequeath the privilege of two more years of toil.

To the freshmen, we affectionately give very best wishes for success at S. H. S.

Futher, we feel that we as individuals have certain important matters to take care of, and at the risk of being thought too self-satisfied, we will some of our individual possessions to our survivors:

BARB ARTIS–leaves her ability to catch and keep a man to Debbie Robinson.

LINDA ATCHISON–leaves her incessant outbursts in Room 8 to Cindy Donnell and her scientific capabilities to the memory of Mr. Wilson.

CHARLOTTE BAUGHER–leaves her pleasant personality to Darcel Funderburk–she needs it.

PAT BLYTHE–leaves 1 pack of Dentyne to "Bucky" so he can have the freshest mouth in town.

MARIAN BOCK–leaves her head of hair to Jim Hess.

Sullivan again enjoyed another successful football season with 7 wins and 2 losses. The Redskins piled up 266 points to the oppositions 93, behind a high powered offense and a stingy defense. The offensive unit had a total offensive average of 342.2 yards per game, compared to the opponents 180 yards.

With 10 returning lettermen and a winning tradition to uphold, the 1970 Redskin squad will be looking forward to another great year.

SENIOR FAREWELL

We, the class of '70, as we take our last walks through the halls of S.H.S. look back on our four years here with many memories. Through this time many of us have passed from adolescence to maturity and set our future goals.

We could not have made it to this day had it not been for the patience of the Faculty and Administration and for their help we thank them.

As we go through life we, the class of '70, will continually look back to our life span from the fall of '66 to the spring of '70 and be thankful to everyone who made those years and our graduation possible.

Joke,
Well, the first days has caught up with us. But we don't care do we? No!!!
I have had fun going to school with you this year.
So as a close remember we are both members of the great class of '77"
